VOL. XXI.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, JULY 11, 1893.

NO. 38

DANVILLE.

—E. S. Mills began Monday to put down the foundation for a brick store-room on the north west corner of Main and Fourth streets.

—Mr. Jo Bowen, heretofore with King & Davis, druggists, will probably soon take employment with E. W. Lillard, also druggist. Mr. Ambrose Portwood, of Lawrenceburg, is visiting his son, Mr. C. D. Portwood, of this city.

—Rev. R. H. Caldwell, of this county, went out Friday morning to feed his hogs when the greedy creatures ran against him and threw him violently to the ground. He was painfully bruised and although he may be confined to his bed for several days no serious result is feared.

—Mr. T. P. Curry left Monday for Lancaster, Ohio, where he is preparing to make a practical test of the electric signal he has been working on so long. By this device a conductor or other trainman can tell whether a train is either before or behind him and if the distance is such as to render unusual vigilance prudent and necessary.

—Prof. and Mrs. J. C. Fales left for Cape May Monday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Hubert McGowan, Prof. and Mrs. J. M. Ruple left for the World's Fair Monday evening. Misses Carrie Kincaid and Ella Barker will go during the week. Judge W. L. Caldwell has returned from Crab Orchard much improved in health. W. E. Sanders, of Bottoms' Mills, Perryville, continues to decline in health. His friends fear he may not recover.

—Very unexpectedly to nearly everybody because of the late hour he entered the contest and his consequent lack of preparation, Mr. J. L. McWilliams, of Louisville, the Centre College representative, won the first prize, $75 in gold, at the Chautauque oratorical contest, at Lexington, last Thursday. His friends here are proud of his success and think it altogether deserved as he is an orator of great talent. Those he defeated were P. W. Broughtenbacher, of Atlanta, Ga., J. E. Baird, of Laidenderry, Ireland, J. G. Dodge, Berea, Ky., Hopkins Moore, of Scott county.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—Miss Nellie Royston is quite ill of typhoid fever.

—Mr. Herndon Young entertained the Sunflower Club Friday evening.

—The farmers are busy threshing their wheat. The corn crop is in excellent condition.

—James Dillon has been awarded the contract for painting the new Owsley building.

—Mrs. C. C. Stormes leaves this week for Martinsville, Ind., in search of health, accompanied by her brother, Mr. Alex Nave.

—Mrs. H. A. B. Marksbury has received the news of the death of her uncle, Mr. John B. Kemper, at Tallahassee, Fla. Mr. Kemper was born and raised Garrard county, but went South some time ago, where he has been very successful in the horse trading and livery business.

—Mrs. Robert E. Hughes is visiting relatives in Louisville. The McGee Robertson, of Elizabethtown, are guests of Miss Ellen G. Owsley. Bob Elkin has returned to Louisville. Mrs. Nancy Marksbury, Misses Mertie and Pearl Walker, of Perryville, are here this week. Mrs. John E. Stormes has returned from Nicholasville. Mr. Sam Evans, of Florida, is here on a visit to relatives and friends.

Officers for the Primary.

The democratic committee met Monday, 10th, and selected the following officers to act in the primary election to be held August 5th for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the Legislature.

Stanford, No. 1—G. P. Bright, clerk. B. W. Givens, C. E. Gentry, judges. J. B. Mershon, sheriff. No. 2—W. L. Dawson, Jack Beasley, judges. Richard Denny, clerk; Frank Logan, sheriff. No. 3—James Lynn, Smith Baughman, judges; Hoadley Sampson, sheriff; H. J. McKibben, clerk. No. 4—T. L. Shelton, William Barnett, judges; Wm. P. Grimes, clerk; Wm. Raines, sheriff.

Crab Orchard, No. 1—D. W. Wallin, W. O. Hansford, judges; J. E. Carson, clerk; H. G. Foley, sheriff. No. 2—W. A. Beasley, D. B. Edmiston, judges; J. B. Gilkerson, clerk; T. M. Estes, sheriff. No. 3—Florence Yowell, Jim Goode, judges; Jim Cook, clerk; Gil Cowan, sheriff. No. 4—Jesse Kilde, A. M. Frye, judges; Beecher Adams, clerk; Tone Hupp, sheriff. No. 5—J. E. Wright, Ed Peyton, judges; Robert Givens, clerk; Sam Bishop, sheriff.

Waynesburg, No. 1—L. G. Gooch, W. F. Camden, judges; Sam Gooch, clerk; Hayden Reynolds, sheriff. No. 2—W. L. McCarty, Edmond Murphy, judges; James Roy, clerk; John W. Gooch, sheriff. No. 3—Henderson Baugh, David Adams, judges; A. A. Crutchfield, clerk; James Cash, sheriff.

R. R. GENTRY, Ch'd.

J. A. CHAPPELL, Sec'y.

—Of every 10,000 deaths in the U. S., 1,420 are from consumption.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

—Col. John H. McHenry, Postmaster of Owensboro, died suddenly Saturday. He was a brother of the late Hon. Henry D. McHenry.

—Curry, the seven-months-old son of Jesse Thompson, the barber, died Sunday night of cholera infantum. The remains were taken to Lexington yesterday for interment.

—Mrs. M. J. Withers received a telegram Sunday stating that her brother-in-law, Mr. Thomas Smith, of Clarksville, Tenn., was dead. Besides his wife he leaves a grown son.

—The news of the sudden death of Mr. James B. Green, of Hustonville, which reached here at an early hour Saturday morning, was a severe shock to this community, in which he had so many friends. It occurred at 11 p. m. Friday and he literally fell dead. He had spent the evening with his wife, apparently in his usual health and in unusually fine spirits, when suddenly he complained of an inability to breathe. He got up and walked about the room in his effort to get breath, but it became more difficult all the time and in a few minutes he was a corpse. Mr. Green was born in this county about 64 years ago. He followed merchandising most of his life and was for years a member of the noted firm of Cook & Green, at Hustonville. He married Miss Mary Blain, sister of Ex-County Clerk John Blain, and she is left to suffer the loss of a loving and faithful husband. They had no children. Almost from early boyhood Mr. Green has been a member of the Presbyterian church, in which he was an elder for many years, and there was never a more devoted follower of the meek and lowly Nazarene than he. He was always at the head of every good church work, the leader of the Sunday-school, the stay of the fatherless and afflicted and a never failing help in time of trouble and sickness. No funeral has occurred in that section for many years that he did not attend and by words of consolation and comfort help to bind up the broken-hearted. Generous to a fault, kind and accommodating to a remarkable degree and liked of all men, his loss will fall with heavy weight on the rich, the poor, the old and the young alike. A good man has fallen and the community grieves as it would for no other man within it. The funeral discourse was preached by his pastor, Rev. J. G. Bruce, assisted by Elder W. L. Williams, of the Christian church, a life-long friend, who paid him a loving tribute, and then the Masonic fraternity, of which he was a faithful member, took charge of the remains and in their impressive ceremony consigned them to the earth, in the presence of a vast throng of loving friends.

—We cherish his memory here. We consign his body to the tomb. We commend his spirit to the God, Who gave it.

IN MEMORIAM.

BY HIS CHURCH.

The pastor and elders of the Hustonville Presbyterian church, adopted the following resolutions in regard to the death of J. B. Green, which met with full approval of the congregation:

WHEREAS it hath pleased Almighty God in the exercise of sovereign power and wisdom to remove from our midst through death Bro. J. B. Green, therefore, by the session of the Hanging Fork Presbyterian Church be it

Resolved, That in the death of Bro. Green this church has lost a member whose consistent walk and conversation before men was such as to commend the religion of Christ to all who knew Him and to constrain men to glorify their Heavenly Father.

2. That every Christian in the community has lost in Bro. Green a true friend, one whose love for Christ's people was not bounded by any denominational lines, but whose great heart took in all who loved the Lord wherever he found them.

3. That the unconverted of this community have lost a sincere friend, one who agonized in prayer in their behalf and one to whose heart their souls were infinitely precious.

4. That we tender his disconsolate widow our heartfelt sympathy in this hour of her deep sorrow and as a matter of consolation we point her to the long and useful life of her husband as an elder in our church; to the high esteem in which he was held by this community; to the love and affection borne him by his Sunday-school pupils and to the sincerity with which all classes of our people mourn his departure.

5. That while we miss our brother and grieve for him and while we recognize that his zeal and earnestness, true piety and consecration make his place hard to fill, yet we bow in resignation to the will of God, knowing that He doeth all things well.

6. That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of the church, a copy presented to Mrs. Green and the INTERIOR JOURNAL be requested to publish the same. W. W. BRUCE, Pastor.

BY HIS LODGE.

WHEREAS in the providence of God, James B. Green, a member of Hustonville Lodge No. 184, F. A. M., has been removed from this life, from his family, his many friends and his church, therefore be it resolved

1. That in the life of our deceased brother we recognize a character adorned by many virtues and every christian grace. A character beyond the reach of reproach and untarnished by any suspicion of evil.

2. As Masons it is with unfeigned pleasure we bestow upon his memory the affection of fraternal hearts, and in sorrow for so great a loss, unite in bestowing upon his memory our last tribute of fraternal regard and affection.

3. In remembrance of the pure life the members of this lodge will wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

4. That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes and a copy furnished his wife of his bosom and a copy furnished the county paper, the INTERIOR JOURNAL, for publication.

CRAB ORCHARD.

—Our city fathers would do well to attend to the bridge on Lancaster street, which is in quite a shabby condition.

—We were much surprised to find Mr. J. R. Lawless' garden in such a fine condition as we saw it a few days ago. He got here after most of the gardening was done about town, but everything in his garden is looking splendidly. He has a nice assortment of vegetables and has not forgotten his flower beds, which look more like the work of a woman than a man. He is getting along nicely with his building and will soon be ready to move his family in.

—The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Curtis will be glad to learn that they have returned from Illinois and are at their old home on Cedar Creek. Mrs. Katie Zeller, of Noblesville, Indiana, brought little Berta James home and is with her sister, Mrs. J. F. Holdam. Mrs. Steve Teeters is at home. Mrs. Annie Sigler Lord and Mrs. Maggie Sigler, of Frankton, Ind., are with Mrs. M. V. Sigler. Miss Eliza Vanoy is visiting her brother, Mr. C. Vanoy, of Stanford. Mrs. Joseph Severance was with Mrs. D. C. Payne last week.

A Card.

I am surprised to hear it alleged that the coincidence of my appearance at points with candidates for other offices is evidence of coalition and a determination to shoulder other interests than my own. Equally absurd is the charge that Mr. Hampton's allusion in his late card to his deputyship under me is suggestive of my shoddering him. I am certainly alive only in my own race for sheriff.

Yours Respectfully,
S. M. OWENS.

GREEN BRIAR SPRINGS.

WANTED,

One neat, tidy and experienced chambermaid. Also two or three dining-room girls, who are willing to work in ironing room after meal time. Write at once, giving age and experience and where employed last; also price desired.

Address D. G. Slaughter, Crab Orchard, Ky.

A boy recently sent the following to the Mayfield Monitor for publication. There is a great of horse sense in what he says:

"Any girl that will let one boy kiss her will let another one that wants to. So with a drunkard—after he takes his first drink he is sure to take his second. The other day there were two young people about 12 or 13 years of age; they were what people call sweethearts, and were having a nice time in an innocent way, until the boy intruded on their bliss by asking her to let him kiss her. She consented and to-day any boy that wants to can kiss her. Girls, don't let any boy kiss you. If my girl would let me kiss her, I would not have her any more."

—A cyclone, accompanied by rain, hail and lightning, caused heavy loss of life and property in southern Iowa Thursday night. The town of Pomeroy, which contained a population of 900, was almost completely obliterated and in several other villages, as well as in the rural districts, houses were razed and many people killed and maimed, some estimates putting the number of dead as high as 63. J. T. Harahan, formerly general superintendent of the L. & N., barely escaped.

—The Cynthia horse doctor, Frank Elmer, who ran away with and married Mollie West, has been held at Lexington in $1,000 bail for bigamy. He is also accused of stealing a ring from the girl he so cruelly deceived and deserted.

Do You Suffer With Rheumatism?

Then it is your own fault, for a few bottles of Stockton's Antiseptic will make a permanent cure. Never fails. Ask A. R. Penny, Stanford, for it. It kills microbes in all parts of the system. Read our little book.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—An aged woman living in Platte county, Feb., was recently married to her 8th husband.

—Dr. Clarence H. Vaught, of Richmond, and Miss Elizabeth Virginia Ware were married at Trenton.

—Miss Allie Tedrow, of Columbus, O., committed suicide because Albert Ackley, her lover, did not reciprocate her affections.

—Wm. Trone, of Philadelphia, committed suicide by drowning because he did not want to marry the young lady to whom he was engaged.

—Eighteen young Kentucky people went to Jeffersonville, Ind., July 4th and returned as nine. This arithmetical problem is given by the Hopkinsville Kentuckian. Can you work it?

—The engagement of Miss Hermine Gratz, daughter of Editor H. H. Gratz, of Lexington, to John Johnson, of Staten Island, N. Y., is announced. The editors who had the pleasure of meeting Miss Gratz at the last Association will be unanimous in the opinion that Mr. Johnson is a very fortunate and much to be envied man.

—The marriage of the Duke of York, Prince George of Wales, the only surviving son of the Prince of Wales, to the Princess Victoria May of Teck, in St. James Palace, London, was attended with great pomp and splendor, and thousands of people gathered along the route of the royal procession from Buckingham Palace through Piccadilly to the Palace. The handsomest wedding present was the gift of the Princess of Wales, which consisted of jewels and precious stones to the value of $1,250,000.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—The Louisville Methodist Orphans' Home has $40,000 endowment pledges and cash.

—There will be a tent-meeting at Sanders, on the Louisville Short Line rail road, July 27-Aug. 6th.

—Sam Jones will dedicate the Union Tabernacle, at Hopkinsville, in October. It will cost $8,000 and have a seating capacity of 10,000.

—Positions in Prayer.—The publican standing, Job sitting (Job 2:8); Hezekiah lying on his bed (2 Kings, 20:2); Elijah with his face between his legs (1 Kings, 18:42); St. Paul kneeling (Eph. 3:12)—Faller.

—The International Sunday school Convention holds its next triennial meeting in St. Louis the first week in September. The movement to reform the present methods of Sunday-school instruction is expected to take shape in that time.

—Mrs. Mills B. Case, of Medicine Lodge, Kas., who for eight weeks took the Christian Science treatment for consumption, died at Kansas City. Consumption is one disease neither christian nor medical science can cure, so there was no harm done.

—The delegates to the Christian Endeavor Convention at Montreal from Kentucky left the city in disgust when they found that the quarters selected for them were among the seum of the place, and in some instances among the lowest disorderly houses.

BARBOURVILLE.

—Quarterly court is in session here now.

—The 4th was not celebrated here very extensively except by the colored population, most everyone going away somewhere to "celebrate."

—Mr. John T. Hays, a prominent young attorney of this place, has been sick for several days but is now improving. Mrs. Card, of Williamsburg, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Geo. T. Bowen, of this place. Mrs. Dr. Burnside and two daughters returned from quite an extended visit to relatives in Lancaster Saturday evening. Hon. John H. Wilson, who came home sick from Washington some two weeks ago, is still improving nicely and will be entirely well soon. Mr. Wilson is not the only Kentucky Congressman who has come so near dying with that dreaded malaria, of which our National Capital seems to be so full. Mr. Canth, it will be remembered, is just now fully recovered as well as Congressman Goodnight, who recently suffered the same way.

Muscular Rheumatism and Indigestion.

Nashville, Tenn., March 6, 1893.—The Stockton Medicine Co., Nashville, Tenn. Gentlemen:—I have had Muscular Rheumatism and Indigestion for a number of years and had lost hopes of ever finding any relief, as the most skilled physicians had failed in my case, but I am happy to say your Antiseptic has made a complete cure, and I do most heartily recommend it to all for Rheumatism and Indigestion. I will gladly answer all inquiries in regard to Antiseptic.

Yours Respectfully, W. E. Bateman, 316 Broad street.

PARIS is reveling in a social sensation. Joseph Howerton, a prominent citizen, who had doubts of his wife's chastity before her marriage, asked her after family prayers Friday night if she could lay her hands on the Bible and look him in the eye and say she was a good woman when he married her. She acknowledged that she could not, and breaking down, confessed that she had been ruined by her brother-in-law, James Kerr, when she was 18 and had kept up illicit relations with him up to a short time before her marriage. Like a good man, Mr. Howerton did not go gunning for Kerr, but took it to the Lord in prayer and also consulted Revs. Blanton and Rutherford, who advised him to put her away, though they asked him no questions as to his own goodness before his marriage. Mr. Kerr denounces the whole thing as one of blackmail and says he was told that for $10,000 in hand he paid the matter would be hushed up. Opinions differ as to the charge, both sides having their champions, but it is said that Mrs. Howerton's brothers side with her and are disposed to make it torrid for Mr. Kerr, and the result is looked for with some interest, both in and out of the country.

The death of Associate Justice Blatchford, which occurred at Newport, N. J., Friday, gives Mr. Cleveland another chance to appoint a member of the Supreme Court and it is said that he will name either Ex-Minister Phelps or Secretary of State Gresham. Judge Blatchford was appointed circuit judge in a New York district by President Johnson in 1868 and in 1882 President Arthur promoted him to a vacancy on the Supreme bench. His death recalls to the Louisville Times the fact that only one justice is on the bench as it was constituted 16 years ago, when the Electoral Commission decided the contest between Tilden and Hayes, and but two have served longer than Justice Blatchford, who had been on the bench 11 years at the time of his demise.

THERE must be some mistake about the late unlamented Legislature having been a worthless body. Nearly every local paper we pick up tells of the return of its member, with a sort of "Lo the conquering hero comes" adulation, that precludes the conviction that there were any bad men in the last General Assembly. Perhaps they may be individually good, but as an aggregation and collectively speaking, it did not even come up to the description of Tobe Grider's show. In reading our exchanges with reference to certain members we are forced to ejaculate, "Lord, how this world, and especially some newspapers, are given to lying!"

APPOINTMENT to government office has spoiled two good editors and caused them to offer their papers for sale. Mr. J. R. Marra wants to dispose of the Rev. Ord-Homestead, at Lancaster, and Mr. T. H. Fox offers the Junction City Times for sale. A great many people would buy newspapers if they had the money, but when they discover that it takes a good deal to purchase a paper and have the price of one named to them they are apt to respond like the man who had a saw mill offered him for a certain sum: "If I had that much money, what in the hell would I want with a saw mill?"

A JUDGE at Asbury Park, N. J., granted an injunction against the Razzle Dazzle Co., restraining it from singing "Annie Rooney," "The Man in the Moon" and "The Man That Broke the Bank at Monte Carlo." The cottagers complained that the constant rendition of these songs had nearly driven them crazy. The judge is receiving the highest encomiums from press and people all over the land, who hope that many more such just and considerate judges may rise up for the long-suffering public to call them blessed.

HANGING and burning are both fearful to contemplate, but it seems that some such awful punishments are necessary to deter negro beasts from crimes against women. The law's vengeance seems to have no effect on them; perhaps the example of the Bardwell mob may. The crime was a most atrocious one. Death in any form and in the most summary manner was small atonement for the rape and murder of two innocent young girls.

THAT man never is but always to be blest is again demonstrated by the suit of a Nebraska man against his wife for divorce, because she does not play the piano. Evidently this one doesn't know when he is well off. Most of us would consider the playing of the average woman on the piano a much better grounds for divorce.

THE best time for the young ladies to go to the World's Fair is during the ten days beginning Aug. 7. The entire corps of 308 West Point Cadets will be in camp there then and there will be brass bands and firing galore.

THE assistant post-master general, Mr. Maxwell, is not the gentleman we took him to be. He doesn't seem to know "where he is at," or what he is there for. His record for the first four months in beheading republican post masters is just 4,264 behind Clarkson's figures in beheading democratic incumbents. We are ashamed of you, Mr. Maxwell. And to be plainer, we are disgusted with you. Get a move on you, old slothful, or get thee hence and let some better democrat with more regard for the proprieties, take the place you seem incapable of filling.

SOME uneasiness was occasioned by the report that President Cleveland is suffering from a cancerous affection and was very ill at Buzzard's Bay, until his physician promptly denied that there was more the matter with him than a lame knee resulting from rheumatism, which is giving him only temporary inconvenience. In this connection it may not be out of place to say that it is also rumored that an event is about to occur in the Cleveland household in which the whole country will be interested.

THERE is one man at least who made a good record in the late Legislature and that is Hon. Anthony J. Carroll, before his election and since his return from Frankfort, city editor of the Louisville Times. His constituency is so proud of his record that he will likely be returned to the General Assembly without opposition. He will probably be a candidate for speaker and if merit counts for anything he ought also to be given a walk-over for that.

THE Christian Endeavorists will endeavor to hold their conventions hereafter in some other country than Canada. The devil seemed to persecute the members from the start. Kentucky delegates were consigned to houses of ill fame for homes and at the close of the meeting Sunday night a mob of 15,000 French Catholics surrounded the building and only the presence of police and militiamen prevented a serious riot.

THERE has never been so many bank failures since 1857 as at present. The effect then was very different from now. Then the bank notes fell to a heavy discount, in many instances becoming entirely worthless. Now when a National bank fails, the government holding security for its notes is responsible for their redemption, making the paper of a bursted bank as good as before its suspension; in fact as good as gold.

THE newspaper business is as much neglected in China as it is overdone in these United States. The Celestial Empire is credited with 400,000,000 inhabitants and with but 24 newspapers, 10 of which are daily, the others appearing at long intervals. The pig tails are not a reading people like the Melian men.

THE attendance at the World's Fair on Sundays is so light that those who advocated the opening on that day are greatly disappointed. Perhaps after all it is best to observe one day in seven and keep it holy.

NEWSY NOTES.

—D. N. Cogar's large warehouse at Harrodsburg burned; insured for $1,600.

—It would require 12,000 cholera microbes to form a procession an inch long.

—The treasury department has decided that the tomato is a vegetable and not a fruit.

—More than 11,000 Chinamen at Shanghai and Woole were drowned by the overflowing of the Weiling.

—The Somerset Reporter says the distillery of G. J. Marcum, at Mill Springs, was entirely consumed by fire.

—According to Edward Atkinson, the scientist-statistician, the trade of the United States aggregates daily $100,000,000.

—The revenues of the government for the fiscal year ending June 30th were $385,000,000 and the expenditures about $383,000,000.

—Guy de Maupassant, the distinguished French romancer of the naturalistic school, died at Paris. He had been insane for some time.

—The kitchen of the governor's mansion at Frankfort burned, but the governor still manages to forage around and get something to eat.

—South Carolina's curious liquor law has been pronounced unconstitutional by one of her circuit judges, who doesn't think the State ought to go into the saloon business.

—At Fort Worth, Texas, Vice-President R. M. Page, of the Merchants' National Bank, was shot and severely wounded by Cashier Smith. The trouble grew out of the affairs of the bank.

—Some statistician has figured that more suicides occur in June and fewer in December than any month in the year. He also says that more marriages occur in the former month than any other.

—Gen. Robert E. Lee's daughter, Miss Mary Curtis Lee, spends very little time in America. She has already made the journey round the world twice, and is just now starting again for Cairo, Egypt.

—The total production of silver in the world during the last year was placed at 145,000,000 ounces troy, of which the United States produced 60,000,000 ounces, or upward of 41 per cent. of the whole amount.

—Several vessels were capsized and a number of people lost their lives in a terrible storm on Lake Michigan.

—James McMullin, aged nearly 117 years, died suddenly Saturday evening near Bardwell, Ky. He was doubtless the oldest person in Kentucky.

—At a picnic near Dover's Mill, Saturday, Albert Lewis was shot and killed by William Yandell, and Charles Lewis was shot and painfully wounded by Jack Yandell, a feud between the families being the cause of the quarrel.

—Banks continue to burst, the First National of Hot Springs, S. D., and the Livingston, Mont., National, Arkansas State Bank, at Stuttgart, Ark., and the Farmers' and Traders' of DeWitt, Ark., failed Saturday.

—Mrs. F. E. Lewis, the errant spouse of the Frankfort grocer, has returned to her lord's bed and board after a six weeks' jamboree with her husband's clerk in Madison, Ind. The grocer took her back and promised to ask no questions.

—Allen Jorgenson, of Paducah, heard a noise in his room and fired his pistol twice in the direction from whence it came. On lighting the gas he was surprised to see a negro burglar breathing his last from the effects of a pistol wound in the forehead.

—While three sisters, the Misses Cunningham, of Cambridge, O., were being buried, another died and the fifth was at the point of death. The disease that caused their sudden deaths was black measles and many others have died of it in the same vicinity.

—The banks of the State are preparing to resist the provision of the new revenue law, which authorizes cities and counties to levy an additional tax, over and above the State tax, of 42½c. They will carry the fight to the United States Supreme Court, it is said, if necessary.

—Wm. Brosius, of Pottstown, Pa., has for several years worn a glass eye. It gave him no trouble till the other night, when from no apparent cause it exploded, the sharp edges of the broken glass cutting the socket and causing a hemorrhage, from the effects of which he will die.

—Trained by a bloodhound, captured in Missouri and identified by the fisherman who ferried him from the Kentucky shore across the Mississippi river, Chas. Miller, alias "Glass-eating Joe," the negro accused of ravishing and murdering the two young daughters of Farmer Ray, of Carlisle county, was returned to Bardwell and burned at the stake.

—The Guelphs are long-lived and prolific breeders. At the marriage last week of the third in the living line of succession, Queen Victoria led the wedding procession into the Chapel Royal, while among the bridesmaids were four Princesses Victoria, all of them her descendants. The House of Brunswick is in no danger of falling for lack of issue.—Louisville Times.

—From figures compiled by the Manufacturers' Record it is estimated that not less than $25,000,000 will be disbursed in interest and dividends by Southern railroads, banks and other corporations during this month. Nearly all of this money will go into circulation in the South and its effect will be very beneficial to the general business and financial situation.

—Ed. S. Krieder, wife and four daughters of Devil's Lake, N. D., were brutally murdered at their home by Albert Baumberger, a nephew, who committed the horrible crime in order to rob the house. He shot all but the eldest daughter, whom he made cook his breakfast, and then taking her to the barn bound her hand and foot and after beating her brains out, skipped the country.

—The Spanish caravels completed their long journey Saturday and were given an enthusiastic welcome upon their arrival in the harbor of the World's Fair. One hundred thousand people were gathered along the lake shore and on the piers to greet them, and their officers were escorted to the reception stand by an imposing array of military representatives from the various nations. Senator Sherman delivered the welcoming address.

WANTED.—An experienced male teacher for the principalship of the Crab Orchard public school. The school usually enrolls 100 to 125 pupils. Address at once R. H. Bronaugh, W. E. Perkins or George Lee James, Crab Orchard.

THE young people "stormed" Misses Maud and Jessie Welsh Friday night and spent a most enjoyable evening. Delightful refreshments were served at the proper hour and it was far into the night when the merry young folks got their consent to leave the hospitable home.

As a big drawing card the U. B. F. Society of Paris announced on its bills advertising an excursion to Frankfort.

"The penitentiary will be open for all visitors who desire to see their relatives and friends." Of course dead loads of colored "gemmen" took advantage of the occasion to visit their kinsfolk.

THE merchants of Nicholasville have combined into an alliance offensive and defensive to sell no goods in future except for the cash or its equivalent. That is the way all business should be conducted, but alas! these farries to adopt the cash system come immediately after the semi-annual settling time and don't last long enough to be recorded.

THIRTY FIVE would be teachers presented themselves for examination Friday, most of them ladies, and pretty ones at that. The preparation of the 100 answers required nearly two days and it will be a week before those who are entitled to certificates will be announced.

PROF. J. G. DENNY and C. H. Holmes are the examiners. Supt. W. F. McClary says he never saw a quieter, better behaved lot of people together than the 35 who spent a couple of days with him.

IN the county court yesterday the will of F. L. Shipman was admitted to probate. It bequeaths $1,000 to his sister, Mrs. Sophia Bagby, and the remainder of his estate to his wife. W. D. Weatherford qualified as administrator. The will of John M. McRoberts, Sr. was also probated. It provides that his estate shall be divided into 10 equal parts, the following persons each getting a tenth: Mrs. W. M. Higgins, W. H. Higgins, Mrs. G. D. Hopper, Mrs. J. H. G. Coakley, Mrs. Kate Egbert, Mrs. Mollie Caldwell, Miss Sallie McRoberts, Will McRoberts and John A. Higgins, and a twentieth each to Mrs. Annie Miller and Mrs. Maggie James. If any of these should attempt to break the will then his share is to go to the rest who do not take part in the effort. A gold watch belonging to his second wife is given to Mrs. Stella Lapsley and at her death to succeeding generations. The sum of $300 is set aside for the education of Maggie, daughter of Joseph McRoberts, the residue, if any, to be divided among the 10 heirs named: John A. McRoberts, having been fully provided for, will receive no further sum from the estate. Mr. W. H. Higgins is named as executor without security and he qualified yesterday. Mr. Jas. B. Green's will, which was also admitted to probate, gives all of his property to his wife, Mrs. Mary R. Green, who is also named as executor and qualified accordingly.

OUR friend Farris F. Sandidge, of the West End, is rejoicing over the advent of a fine boy.

DR. STEELE BAILEY announces that the next meeting of the Central Kentucky Medical Association will be at Harrodsburg on the 19th.

OUR young friend Joe Embry rejoices over the arrival of a bouncing baby boy. He arrived Thursday night and tips the beam at nearly 9 pounds.

LIGHTNING struck and killed two fine brood mares belonging to John Rout, of the West End, during the storm Thursday evening.

YOUR account at Yeager & Yeager's is due and ready and they ask that you do not defer longer the payment of it, but settle at once.

FREE exhibition this week of the souvenir spoons belonging to the many ladies of this vicinity. Danks, the jeweler, invites you to call and see them.

THIS office has just gotten out a neat little catalogue for President J. M. Hubbard, of the Stanford Female College, which is greatly admired for its size, shape and conciseness.

FOUR years ago Cope and Doolin killed young Watson, son of the sheriff, at a religious gathering in Pulaski, near the Lincoln county line. Since then there have been three mistrials, but a jury was at last found that was willing to give them at least partial justice. They were tried again last week at Somerset and given 2 and 34 years respectively.

MR. J. M. JOHNSON is announced in this issue as a candidate for assessor. He has had a good deal of experience in the office, having been deputy under more than one assessor and having also been deputy sheriff, which office he now holds, he is fully apprised as to the value of the property. He is besides an all-around good man, who needs the emoluments of the office, which he asks the democracy to give him.

OF INTEREST TO A MULTITUDE—Under a new regulation of the internal revenue department persons seeking positions as storekeepers, gaugers and storekeepers are required to address their applications to the collector instead of to the secretary of the treasury, as heretofore. They are also required to accompany their applications with testimonials as to their sobriety, industry and business qualifications.—Richmond Register.

THE governor having signed the educational bill, which fixes the first election for school superintendents for next November, Mr. W. F. McClary, who has filled the office so acceptably in this county, announces himself a candidate for re-election. No man who has ever held the position has given it so much time and attention as Mr. McClary. He has in fact made himself almost indispensable and we take it he will be granted a walk-over for the democratic nomination.

WHILE a guard had the prisoners sentenced to work out lines in Jailer Owens' corn field the other day, three negro boys, who claim to be from South Carolina, made their escape. John Newland was at once put on their track and soon succeeded in getting them back into the lock-up, where Mr. Owens administered a dose to each that they will not soon forget. Their excuse for leaving was that it was too hot to work. Two guards, one armed with pistols and the other with a gun, now escort the gang when it leaves the jail.

NO SHOW.—The committee appointed confer with President M. H. Smith with reference to a return of the L. & N. shops, &c., to Rowland and the continuance of it as a terminal point, went to see that gentleman Friday and had a free and full conversation with him and Superintendent J. G. Metcalfe. They were frankly told that there was no prospect of a return to Rowland, as it was largely to the interest of the company to have the terminal points as now arranged. A small force would be kept at Rowland, but it would never again be the place it had been. Mr. Smith was heartily in favor of the establishment of industries here and promised to assist in every way possible. Liberal freight rates would be made to such enterprises, but they would have to be adjusted to individual cases. Mr. Smith also said that what Stanford and Rowland now consider a calamity might in the end prove the best thing that could have happened to them, and cited the experience of North Vernon, Ind., as illustrative. The company found it to its advantage to remove its shops and terminal point from there. The calamity howlers were inconceivable, but the more courageous went to work to establish factories and succeeded. To day N. Ver. is one of the most prosperous towns in the State, and all because the people have learned to rely on their own resources and not on the railroads. It has been our idea all along that Stanford has too many natural advantages to droop and die because of the large reduction of force at Rowland. Our moneyed citizens have it in their power to make Stanford bloom like a green bay tree by investing at home instead of putting their money in Western banks, where moth and rust do consume and where thieving directors break through and steal.

JOHN CARRIER, of the Shelton House, Rowland, has opened a restaurant at Corbin.

THE candidates, whose name is legion, formed about the largest portion of the crowd that attended court yesterday, and they worked manfully. Their arms must be as sore to-day from handshaking as the poor unfortunates' who came within their vision yesterday.

THE various privileges of the Fair, which include dining rooms, lunch-stands, lemonade stands, horse feeding and hitching and parcel-room will be sold at public auction at 2 P. M. Wednesday, July 19, '93. For particulars write to E. C. Walton, Sec'y, Stanford, Ky.

JOHN ROUNT, of the West End, was down yesterday with his little son, Joe Will, who was recently bitten by a dog. The wound was a very slight one, but the peculiar action of the dog led Mr. Rount to fear he was mad. The madstone owned by Mr. Lewis Dudderar, deceased, was applied to the wound, but as it did not adhere, Mr. Rount went home feeling much easier than when he came.

STEPHENS & KNOX have moved their goods from Rowland to the store-room formerly occupied by B. K. Wearan, opposite the Coffey House. They will dispose of their old stock at auction and in other ways and afterward will open out a brand new stock. Their motto is "quick sales and small profits," and if they continue to carry it out the other merchants here will have to hump themselves or get left.

HAIR'S WELL, though not now open to the public, is still a resort for hundreds of those who have faith in its excellent water, who drive out and spend the day with their families, those gathering there often making merry picnic parties. Mr. Samuel Spoonamore, one of its owners, is contemplating opening up the hotel shortly and a number of cottages have been spoken for. He says if he takes charge he will run it as it was never before run.

SOME HEN.—Mr. Reuben Williams has a Leghorn pullet which was hatched last November that has laid 54 eggs and has never shown an inclination to set. Last Saturday she performed the unusual feat of laying two eggs, at least Mr. Williams vouches to that effect, and we have never known him to tell a lie. Another remarkable point in this wonderful hen is that she never cackles, even after laying two eggs, but goes about her business and makes no fuss about it.

WRECK.—If the property holders have not sufficient pride to keep the pavements in front of them free of weeds, the city fathers ought to take the matter in hand. Some pavements on Main street are so overgrown with grass and weeds as to make it very unpleasant to walk on them after a dew or rain. Strangers coming to town will set us down at once as a careless, sleepy community, with not enough city pride to take away the rural aspect that the weeds give. Let the weeds be dug up, root and stem. Grass grown streets, electric lights and water works do not comport.

NOT GUILTY.—Sometime ago it was charged that Prof. W. D. Tardiff, principal of the colored school here, was the father of the illegitimate child of one of his pupils. As soon as the report got to his ears he demanded an investigation and a committee of women was appointed to see the girl. She stated on oath that he was not the father of her child, but on the contrary, the professor had always given her good advice. Supt. W. F. McClary was perfectly satisfied with the proof, as were the board of trustees and Tardiff was honorably acquitted. The professor will take legal steps against those who so maliciously attempted to ruin his reputation.

THE oratorical contest at the Lexington Chautauqua was won by J. L. McWilliams, of Louisville, who represented Centre College.
